At the community center every month a free for all English class is held for locals from kindergarten age to seniors. During months when there are events like Independence Day, Halloween, or Christmas, the class practices English conversation. Recently many people from different areas in the city attend and enjoy this class every time.

Halloween

The volunteer group "A Group of Volunteer English Teachers" attended a workshop on how to improve teaching at the sponsored school. Using Halloween as the main theme, schools exchanged opinions after they shared their teaching methods and did demonstration lessons. Also, the attendance fee was donated to cancer patients in the Philippines. ◦
